The Fund is suitable for investors who take medium- to long-term views. The Fund's yield, net asset value and total return may fluctuate as a result of interest rate and currency movements and the changes in the credit quality of the investments. On redemption of shares, an investor may receive an amount less than the original amount of the investment. Liquidity risk also needs to be taken into account.

BPI – Philam US Dollar Bond Fund 2 Market Commentary

The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines rose by 0.64% in July as Philippine dollar denominated bonds outperformed US Treasuries.

Global bonds had another volatile month as softening US inflation figures were offset by hawkish Fed speak. US core PCE was at 4.1% year-on-year in June, down from 4.6% in the prior month, while US June headline CPI was at 3.0% year-on-year, the lowest level since March 2021.

During its Federal Open Market Committee meeting held towards month-end, the Fed hiked policy rates by another 25 basis points, a move widely anticipated by markets. Fed Chair Jerome Powell noted that they would continue to make data driven decisions on a "meeting-by-meeting basis". Over the month, the US 10-year benchmark Treasury yield rose by 12 basis points to close at 3.96%.

In the local space, inflation for the month of June dropped to 5.4% year-on-year from the 6.1% print in May. The figure was once again below market expectations, and was brought about by receding supply-side pressures. This brought about speculation that the central bank could keep rates steady come its Monetary Policy meeting slated for August. Nevertheless, newly appointed BSP Governor Eli Remolona has underscored that core inflation remains elevated, with potential upside risks stemming from El Niño and upcoming wage hikes.

Risk Warning: Past performance is not indicative of future results. Our investment management services relate to a variety of investments, each of which can fluctuate in value. The value of portfolios we manage may fall as well as rise, and the investor may not get back the full amount originally invested. The investment risks vary between different types of instruments. For example, for investments involving exposure to a currency other than that in which the portfolio is denominated, changes in the rate of exchange may cause the value of investments, and consequently the value of the portfolio, to go up or down. In the case of a higher volatility portfolio the loss on realization or cancellation may be very high (including total loss of investment), as the value of such an investment may fall suddenly and substantially. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of the merits and risks involved. Disclaimer: Unless otherwise noted, all information contained herein is sourced from BPI AIA* internal data.
