BPI – Philam US Dollar Bond Fund 2 Market Commentary

The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines rose by 5.27% in November as Philippine dollar denominated bonds tracked movements in US Treasuries.

Global bonds rallied for the month as dovish US Federal Reserve commentary, weaker-than-expected US employment data and easing oil prices sparked hopes that the rate tightening cycle was nearing its end at last. In its FOMC meeting concluded early November, the US Federal Reserve opted to keep policy rates steady for a second straight session. The Committee upgraded its general assessment of economic growth, while continuing to highlight that they would remain watchful of upside inflation risks. Meanwhile, US CPI for the month of October was up 3.2% YoY, slower than the prior month's 4.1% and consensus estimate of 3.3%. Consequently, the 10-year US Treasury benchmark yield fell to as low as 4.26% before ending 24 basis points lower month-on-month at 4.33%.

In the local space, inflation for the month of October fell to 4.9% year-on-year from the 6.1% print in September. The figure was well below market expectations (consensus estimate: +5.6% YoY) and the central bank's projected range of 5.1% to 5.9%. The decline was brought about by declining food and fuel prices. The country's 3rd quarter GDP grew by 5.9% YoY, faster than consensus estimate of 4.7% and the 2Q2023 figure of 4.3%. Expansion was driven by a recovery in government spending, as well as resilient consumer spending. With easing inflation and stable growth, the BSP announced that it would hold policy rates steady during its Monetary Policy Board meeting held November 16. BSP Governor Eli Remolona nonetheless noted that the central bank would remain vigilant of its inflation target and would be ready to adjust policy rates as necessary.

Risk Warning: Past performance is not indicative of future results. Our investment management services relate to a variety of investments, each of which can fluctuate in value. The value of portfolios we manage may fall as well as rise, and the investor may not get back the full amount originally invested. The investment risks vary between different types of instruments. For example, for investments involving exposure to a currency other than that in which the portfolio is denominated, changes in the rate of exchange may cause the value of investments, and consequently the value of the portfolio, to go up or down. In the case of a higher volatility portfolio the loss on realization or cancellation may be very high (including total loss of investment), as the value of such an investment may fall suddenly and substantially. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of the merits and risks involved. Disclaimer: Unless otherwise noted, all information contained herein is sourced from BPI AIA* internal data.
