1. Is the Proposed Insured (PI) in a current relationship with a partner with legal impediment?

Under Art. 739 in relation to Art. 2012 of The New Civil Code, legally married persons who enter into and maintain a common law relationship with a third person without having first legally dissolve their previous valid marriage cannot name their common law partner as beneficiary in an insurance contract. Neither can the third party name the married person as a beneficiary.

2. If currently with a partner, is the PI's partner one of the beneficiaries to this insurance application?
3. Are you aware of any threat or attempted violence on the life of the PI in relation to a previous or current relationship?

I certify that the above information is based on my personal knowledge of the Applicant and on information I personally obtained.
